ADDITIONAL NOTES:

PLEASE READ THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY

1. Fit and Proper

Any prospective person to fit the position should possess the necessary competence, integrity and suitability to perform the required duties. This helps to protect the Credit Union and its members by ensuring that individuals in leadership positions are capable of managing and governing the organization effectively and ethically. This involves honesty, ethical behaviour and a strong moral compass. Individuals must be free from conflicts of interest and any disqualifications that would prevent them from fulfilling their responsibilities. The “fit and proper” assessment is a gatekeeper mechanism to ensure that those in leadership positions are competent and trustworthy, contributing to the stability and good governance of the Credit Union.

For the avoidance of doubt, the applicant shall have the following;

- i. honesty, integrity, fairness and a good reputation;
- ii. competence, diligence, capability, soundness of judgment;
- iii. financial soundness, that is, the member should demonstrate prudence in the management of his own financial affairs;
- iv. with regard to the previous conduct, business activities and financial matters of the person, there is no evidence that he has:
  - a. committed an offence involving fraud, violence or other dishonesty;
  - b. been delinquent in meeting payment obligations;
  - c. engaged in business practices that appear to be deceitful, oppressive or improper (whether lawful or not) or which otherwise reflect discredit on his/her method of conducting business;
  - d. an employment record which shows that he carried out an act of impropriety in the handling of his employer's business;
- v. engaged in or been associated with any other business practices or otherwise conducted himself in such a way as to cast doubt on his competence and soundness of judgment.

2. Good Financial Standing

A member in “Good Financial Standing” is a member who is neither delinquent nor inactive.
